WHY PEOPLE GO TO "THE SPAINGS" is a mystery that has long puzzled the stay-at-homes. A poet who has been there and investigated the subject for himself, thus groups the several motives in a single verse :

bome come to partake of the waters,
(The sensible, old-fashioned cives)
And some to dispose of their daughters,
And some to dispose of themselvas;
And some to guander their treisure,
And some their funds to improve;
And some for the mere love of pleasure,
And some for the mere love of pleasure, And some for the pleasure of love;
And some to escape from the old,
And some to see what is now.
But most, it is plain to be told.
Come here because other folks do!

CORONER'S INQUEST .- Yesterday, Coroner Whiting proceeded to Windsor Hill plantation, on Goosecreek, and held an inquest over the body of Lavinia Jones, the incidents connected with whose death THE NEWS has already published. After considerable testimony had been taken, and the matter thoroughly investigated, the jury rendered a vardice to the effeet that the deceased came to her death from wounds inflicted in her neck by a gun, acordentally discharged, while in the hands of Albert Milthouse, colored, on the 9th of August, 1869. Immediately after the decision of the iury Milihouse was discharged.

ARREST OF TWO DRUMMERS.

Their Cases Before the Mayor-Constitutes a Violation of the Ordi-100 "To License and Regulate Traveling Agents, Itinerant Salesmen, Transient Persons, or other Persons not Residents of the City."

On Tuesday last Mr. John Blundell, traveling agent for the liquor house of G. B. Powell & Co., of Philadelphia, and Mr. George W. Palmer, travelling agent for the liquor house o George D. Bayaud, of New York, were arrested at the Charleston Hotel by Officers Coates and Lovy upon the charge of violating the ordinance "To license and regulate travelling agents, itinerant salesmen, transient persons or other persons not residents of the city." which provides "that each and every transient person, travelling agent, itinerant salesman, or other person or persons, not residents of the City of Charleston, or not holding a lease, for a year or long r, of a store or building in the city, who shall carry on any faculty, profession, occupation, trade or employment, or who shall sell, or offer for sale in said city, any description of goods, wares, or merchandise whatsoever, either by samples, patterns, or otherwise; or who shall solicit and obtain orders for supplying others with any such goods, wares, or mercha dise, or shall buy and sell any such goods, wares, merchandise, produce, or other ommodity, on commission, shall, before entering upon any such business as aforesaid, make application to the City Council, accompanied by the recommendation of three respectable freeholders, certifying that the applicant is a fit and proper person to be entrusted with such a license. The person so applying shall deposit with the City Treasurer two huncred dollars, and, upon the license being granted, shall execute a bond in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, with two sureties, to be approved of by the Committee on Licenses, conditioned for the true returns of sales and full payment of city taxes thereon." And further providing that if any person "shall neglect or refuse to comply with the requirements of this ordinance, he shall be liable to a penalty of five hundred dollars, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction."

At ten o'clock yesterday morning the accused appeared before the Mayor in his private office, Colonel Thomas Y. Simons counsel.

THE CASE OF MR. BLUNDELL Was first called. Officers Coates and Levy tes tifled that they had heard of Mr. Blundell selling goods by sample and had arrested him, when he admitted that he had been thus engaged.

Mr. Blundell stated that he was ignorant of the law of the city in regard to his business; that he had taken one order to the amount of Mayor, who dismissed him with an admoni-$200, and that as he did not believe that his house would be willing for him to solicit under the restrictions which the city imposed, he would cease.

The Mayor stated that the law provided that a tax of three dollars on every hundred dollars of all goods sold in the city by persons not residents, by sample or otherwise, should be paid. Mr. Blundell expressed his willingness to pay it, did so, and was discharged.

THE CASE OF MR. PALMER Was next called, Officers Coates and Levy testified that when they had arrested Mr. Blundell they became convinced that he notified Mr. Palmer of his arrest. Shortly afterward they accosted Palmer, whom they had also seen seticiting orders on East Bay, and asked him if he had a license to carry on his business. He replied that he had, and after some parley showed the following, written on a letter-head shoot of the house of Mautous & Co., of this city :

"CHARLESTON, August 9, 1869. "This is to certify that Mr. Geo. W. Palmer is empowered to sell goods in this city in our name, we being the agents of the house which ha ranregente MANTOUE & Co."

Officer Goates, noticing the "freshness" of the document, askel him when it had been 2, at their Hall, Menday evening, August 8, written, to which Mr. Paimer replied that 1869: five cents a month, by addressing a note, with it had been written on the 9th (Mon- Whereas, The Almighty, in the disper day.) Both officers stated that they had every reason to believe that Mr. Palmer had gone to Mantous & Co. and obtained the permit to solicit, after he had been informed of the arrest of Mr. B'undel!.

Mr. Palmer stated that on Monday morning last he called upon Mesers. Mantoue & Co. and had told them that he wished to solicit in their name, and they had said 'it was all right;" that they were agents of the house he represented; that there was no paper between them, nor was any necessary.

A member of the firm of Mantous & Co. testifled that Mr. Palmer had come to them Mouday and requested permission to solicit in their name, and they had granted permission; that the permit was written on the 10 h fus ead of the 9th, as dated; that they were agents of the house Mr. Palmer represented; that there was nothing on their books to show it, there was no paper between the houses, and that they had been agents since Monday.

The Mayor said, substantially: This whole affeir looks suspicious, very suspicious, indeed, and it seems to me that this way of doing business is a very good plan to defraud the government; but as I cannot discredit the statement of Mr. — (the member of the firm of Mantone & Co,) made under oath as it was, I must believe that it is all fair and legitimate; but I will require Colonel Simons to make out legal papers, showing that this business is legitimate, and then I will pass upon

The case will, doubtless, remain undisposed of for several days.

THE TAX ON COTTON AND RICE. -At the adjourned meeting of cotion and rice factors. held yesterday, it was determined to memo rialize the City Council for a removal of the city ax on sales of rice and cotton. The tax on cotton is one-tour h of one per cent. and on rice one-half of one per cent. In Savannah the city tax is only one-tenth of one per cent., and in New York, Phiadelphia and Baltimore, cotton and rice are not taxed at all. We are all confident that the trade of Charleston must rapidly improve it we manage our business with liberal discretion, and take care to put ourselves on an equal footing with our commercial rivals. While cotton and rice are taxed in Charleston, the ageute of Northern The Savannah Club will be met at the wharf houses soour the State and advise the people The Savannan Club will be met at the wharf to ship their produce to cities "where there is no tax." They make the best of their case, and we cannot meet them successfully while we are nampered by this municipal tax, which comes out of the pocker of the producer. We hope that Counci will abolish the tax on sotton and rice. But it is a bad rule that will not work both ways, and we trust that the factors will see that the wharfage and storage rates here are not higher than in Payanuah. be as all of the sections were not passed upon the ups large mome because the tax, which promethic. presented to Gouncil praying that the tax upon wharves and storehouse, should also come down in their rates. in their rates if they are now higher than those After some further business, of a private na-ture, the meeting adjourned to meet at the lition of the city tax on cotton and rice will do but little good.

CHARLESTON COLLEGE.-The Senior Class of this institution had a sailing party yesterday afternoon on the pilot boat Wild Cat, and of course had some of their lady friends with them. The weather was clear, but favoring breezes refused to blow, and after drifting about for an hour, the anchor was sent over the side. The gentlemanly and untiring managers determined to make the affair a pleasant boating party, if not a successful sailing one. They soon had a plentiful supply of lemonade and cakes, which, together with delightful vocal music from the ladies, made the time fly by on winged feet. Just as the clock struck eight, the courteous sailing master, Captain Jones, took charge of his gig, and, after very many trips, landed the large party safely. We hope that more favoring breezes may attend the Senior Class in their present examination, and that, as with the sail of yesterday, the ladies may continue to cheer them, in all their efforts, with their bright smiles.

A CHARLESTON BLOCKADE-RUNNER ON THE LARBS.—Alluding to the Chicora, a steamer which most of our readers will recollect, a Lake Superior correspondent of the New York Evening Post writes:

On arriving at the Saut St. Marie, Michigan, attuated on the st. Mary's River, the outlet of Lak Superior, I was surprised to learn that one of the many blockade-runners which in-fested our coast during the rebellion had found its way into the inland seas of America. This fleet steamer now runs weekly from Colling-wood Outstro. fleet steamer now runs weekly from Collingwood Ontario, stopping at the Saut and at Marquette, Mionigan thence proceeding across Lake Superior to Fort William, Canada, situated on the north shore. The stea ner Chicora deserves particular attention from her antecedents, having several times successfully ran the hlockade under the name of the 'Let Her B." She was built of iron in Liverpool, in 1864 with four water-tight o meartments; length two hundred and thirty-four feet, and four hundred and sixteen tons butthen, with double oscillating engines; two stack pipes, fore and aft, and two raking masts, with a speed of twenty miles an hour. She was bought by a Canadian company, cut in two and passed through the Welland Canal, then refitted at Buffalo, N. Y. This is a short history of this foreign craft, which has become a popular steamer with seekers of pleasure and invalids visiting the upper lakes.

CRUMBS.—A velocipedist who would ride his machine upon Orange-street, and when erdered to desist by a policeman cursed him, was arrested, and, with his velocipede, carried to the guardhouse, and from thence to the

A little white boy, just large enough to fill a quart pot, named Thomas Finley, was before the Mayor yesterday for vagrancy. His plea that he would rather go to the Guardhouse than home, had its effect on his Honor, who sent to him the House of Correction, to rcmain until his friends called for him.

The services of the City Attorney were needed yesterday, as they have been several times of late, but that office-holder is not here. The steamship Falcon arrived at Baltimore on Tuesday evening after a boisterous trip. A discharged colored soldier named George

Collins was arrested yesterday afternoon by the detectives upon the charge of stealing "Major" Ficklin, the upright soldier whom everybody knows, had a box of cigars, which he was selling yesterday, confiscated by an internal revenue officer. Stamps are good things, and should be placed on cigars, "Major."

In Memoriam

The following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted at a regular meeting of the Charleston Hook and Ladder Company, No.

of his Allwise Providence, has seen fit to visit our ranks and remove from our midst an old and valued friend and companion, John F. McKay. The death of our honored comrade has filled our hearts with unalloyed sadness. Our deceased friend was, for a long number of years, attached to this company, ever cheerfully performing the active and arduous duties of a fireman with a zeal and alacrity that evidenced a true public spirit; at the same time displaying such a gentle and genial disposition that endeared him to us all. But it was in the love he evinced for his fellow-men he shone most conspicuous. The best impulses of his heart were ever alive to the calls of charity. He was just and honorable in all his dealings. These traits of character won for him the respect of his fellow-men. Therefore, be it
